BEST TREATMENT FOR COLDS. Most ordinary colds will yield to the simplest treatment," says the Chicago Tribune, "moderate laxatives, hot foot baths, a free perspiration and an avoidance of exposure to cold and wet after treatment. While this treatment is simple, it requires considerable trouble, and the one adopting it must remain in doors for a day or two, or a fresh cold is almost sure to be contracted and in many instances, pneumonia follows. It is not a reliable preparation like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that is famous for its cure of colds and is always to be depended upon for sale by all druggists.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

The graduating class of the Ogden High school visited the university today, at the invitation of President Kingsbury. After being shown through the buildings, they were entertained at luncheon.

In order to enable the senior mining and engineering students to vote before they leave on their long trip, next Friday morning has been set as the time for nominations for officers for the ensuing year. The election will take place next week.

The girls of the freshmen class have issued invitations to the "university for an old maid" party to be given May 7.

Governor Spry and his staff have been invited to attend the reception to be given by the senior girls to the senior boys next Monday afternoon. The graduates will appear in the caps and gowns on that occasion.

The normal school faculty will entertain in the kindergarten rooms today evening in honor of the graduates of the normal department.

EFFORT TO PULL HULK OFF SHOALS

Strenuous Exertions by the Old Mariners of "American" Party To Refloat the Ship.

ANDREW JACK WEBER AT HELM

District Chairman Piped on Deck to Assemble in the City Hall This Evening.

Strenuous exertions are to be made by some of the "old guard" who have picked the persimmons growing on the so-called "American" party tree for the three years ago, to save the old hulk from complete engulfment in the surf of adverse public opinion. A meeting of the district chairman of the relief has been called to meet in the office of the judge in the old city hall this evening, for the purpose of devising some means of keeping the remnant of the party together long enough to put up some kind of an excuse for a campaign for the city election the coming fall.

The "American" party is in a sad plight. With dissensions innumerable in its own ranks; with a bankrupt city treasury as the result of its administration staring it in the face; with absolutely no excuse for carrying on its fight in the city except that of seizing the spoils of partisanship engendered by the iron rule of its leaders in the last two city campaigns by which any applicant for any municipal position, no matter how inconsequential, must show a record endorsed by his district chairman as being an "American" henchman, or no job, it has come to the point where lovers of fair play have become disgusted and are waiting only for the time to come to express their disgust at the ballot box.

BREAKERS AHEAD.

It is said that Judge Andrew Jackson Weber has been selected to man the helm in the coming campaign; it is also said that Judge Weber has consented to do so, providing certain conditions are complied with as to money guarantee, etc. It is believed that the campaign will be further complicated by the desire of some of the rank and file of the party to endorse the course of Mayor Bradford, although Mayor Bradford was, on the dictum of Seft, Lippman et al., read out of the party long ago; also that some considerable trouble will be encountered by the deep, dark, dank disgrace into which Congressman Tom Black and Councilman L. D. Martin have fallen with the "rule or ruin" faction of the party, and that last but not least, an uprising of no mean consequence is scheduled to take place unless one "Jake" Raleigh of cobblestone fame is not placed among the "also rans" of the party.

With these few shoals standing in the way of clear sailing into the harbor of victory in the coming fall campaign, the meeting of district chairmen, the meeting of the party called for tonight is not likely to prove a love feast.

BULLETIN ON COAL RATE COMPARISONS

Commercial Club Traffic Bureau Sets Forth Some Interesting Data Regarding Freight Discrimination.

A comparison of the rates on coal in effect in the state of North Dakota, and those charged by the Rio Grande railroad in Utah, is the subject of the latest bulletin issued by the Commercial club traffic bureau. The bulletin follows:

"The attention of the public is again invited to the excessive rate on coal charged by the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company in Utah and which our people are compelled to pay as compared with rates deemed reasonable in other states.

"Two years ago the legislature of North Dakota enacted a law establishing maximum rates on coal in that state, but which of course the railroad company really cannot afford to make courts as being confiscatory and the law unconstitutional.

"After fighting the matter all the way up to the state supreme court, on April 15 the latter held the rates to be reasonable, the law constitutional, enjoining the railroads from charging higher rates and ordering them to put into effect the tariff fixed by the legislature.

COPY OF TARIFF RECEIVED.

"A copy of the tariff has been supplied to the bureau by the secretary of the railroad commission of North Dakota and for the distances stated they compare with the rates now charged by the Denver & Rio Grande company in Utah as follows:

Clear Creek to Miles.	No. Dak. Utah
Provo	73 63 cents $1.50
Am. Fork	88 68 cents 1.75
Lehi	89 68 cents 1.75
Murray	111 65 cents 1.75
S. L. City	117 67 cents 1.75
Ogden	154 75 cents 1.75

"This bureau some time ago appealed to the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company to give Provo, Salt Lake, Ogden and the points between and involving hauls from 73 to 154 miles, a uniform rate of $1.05 per ton on coal in earloads, but which that company refused to do on the ground that such a rate would not compensate it for the service.

RAILROADS UNGRATEFUL.

"The people of these cities in Utah have done much for the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad company in bestowing upon it a great volume of valuable traffic in all kinds for many years and do not merit this wholly ungrateful treatment in response to practically their first request for some consideration in return.

"In view of its action in respect to these coal rates it is difficult to discover the ground upon which the company can reasonably continue to seek or expect the liberal patronage of our people to continue. If that railroad company really cannot afford to make the rate asked for, and which is known to be liberal for the extent of service, can it be that the alleged inability to do so may proceed from any possible inability on the part to handle traffic as economically as other railroads, or may it proceed from some other entirely unsuspected motive?"

MAIL CLERK ARRESTED FOR RIFLING LETTERS

Ren Sailor of Salt Lake Behind the Bars—Caught by Means Of a Decoy.

Ren Sailor, a young man 30 years of age, who resides at 726 west North Temple street with his wife and three children, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Charles Baldwin yesterday afternoon on the charge of rifling registered mail packages on the train running between Salt Lake City and Malad, Idaho. His bonds were fixed at $2,000, in default of which he is taken to the county jail, where he will have to remain to await the action of the grand jury, if bail is not forthcoming.

Sailor was arrested earlier in the day at Ogden by inspectors McKee, Lowe and Nelson, who caught him with the goods. They had sent three decoy packages of registered matter containing money to Sears, Roebuck company Chicago; National Clock House, New York, and Montgomery Ward & Company, all of them being mailed at Garfield, when Sailor's train arrived at Ogden. The inspectors examined the packages sent by them, the currency in which had previously been marked, and they found the decoy money had been abstracted. Sailor was immediately placed under arrest, and the money was found on him. He made no attempt to deny the crime, but freely confessed that he had opened the number of letters and taken money from them, though he does not admit having taken the amount which is estimated to have been lost during the past nine or ten months. The inspectors say that during that time, as near as they can tell, several hundred dollars have been taken, and Sailor puts the amount stolen by him at less than $100.

Sailor has been in the mail service on the railway for several years, but has only been on the Malad run for about eight months. During that time a great many complaints of losses on that division have reached the postoffice officials, and the inspectors were quickly set to work on the case. They soon gathered evidence that pointed to Sailor as the guilty one, but were not able to fasten the guilt upon him until they adopted the above ruse.

The offense is similar to that of C. S. Slade, the only difference being that Slade did his work in the postoffice, while Sailor opened his letters in the railway car.

Sailor is said to have offered the excuse for his acts that he was hard pressed for money owing to sickness in the home. His wife was nearly prostrated when the news reached her.

More than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles, due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism. In such cases no internal treatment is required. The free application of Chamberlain's Liniment is all that is needed, and it is certain to give quick relief. Give it a trial and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain and soreness. COLLEGE TO HAVE BEST OBTAINABLE

$15,000 FOR THAT PURPOSE.

Board Leaves for Cache to Investigate Some Needed Changes at Big Institution for Farmers.

The board of trustees of the Agricultural college plan to go to Logan this afternoon, to decide on the improvements, changes and repairs that are to be made in and around the college this summer. John C. Sharp, who is a member of the board, feels that the livestock question should be gone into thoroughly in the effort to have none but the best money can buy. President Lorenzo Stohl is of the same opinion. Mr. Sharp said this morning that he would not care to be connected with an institution like the college if the stock is no better than is to be found on the farm.

"The fact that the college does not take any prizes at the state fairs," shows," said Mr. Sharp, "that something is wrong. This must be remedied, and we must have the best obtainable." Mr. Stohl said the board will clean out everything that is not thoroughbred, and it is understood that there are quite a few of the animals, except some horses, which are not pedigreed.

DESERTER PICKED UP.

Louis W. Sunder, an alleged deserter from company 1, Fifteenth infantry, was taken into custody last night by Patrolmen H. D. Layton and Olsen, and was given over to the military authorities at Fort Douglas this morning. Sunder is said to have deserted from his regiment April 10, and has been living in Salt Lake since that time. He was picked up on Commercial street from a description furnished by the military.
